October-December In-Community Events

Audiences Unlimited and our arts partners are offering tickets to the following events. Tickets are limited to 8 per facility with 1 wheelchair and 2 walkers included. At least one staff member must be present during the entire event. All evaluations must be up to date in order to receive tickets to events. Events held at the Arts United Center do not have space for wheelchairs. All residents in wheelchairs must be able to transfer to a regular seat.

Please respond with your ticket request (include if you will need a wheelchair spot) by email if possible: myprograms@audiencesunlimited.org. If you do not have email, you may call Ayesha at 739-9492. We will not contact you about these events. You must

October 23@7:30pm
Fort Wayne Community Band
IPFW Rhinehart Music Center, Auer Hall

October 27@7:30pm
Rachmaninoff Masterworks-FW Philharmonic
Embassy Theatre

The brilliant young French pianist Lise de la Salle will play Rachmaninoff's most popular piano concerto, with its blizzard of notes and luxuriant string melodies. Two showpieces by Strauss provide the perfect accompaniment, putting the Philharmonic's stunning virtuosity on full display.

November 1@7:30pm
Elf The Musical- Civic Theatre
Arts United Center *no wheelchair seating

Buddy, a young orphan, mistakenly crawls into Santa's bag of gifts and is transported to the North Pole. The would-be elf is raised, unaware that he is actually a human, until his enormous size and poor toy-making abilities force him to face the truth. With Santa's blessing, Buddy embarks on a journey to New York City to find his birth father and discover his true identity.

November 10@7:30pm
Britten Masterworks- FW Philharmonic
Embassy Theatre

This concert will be performed nearly 100 years to the day after the armistice of World War I. The Philharmonic, guest soloists, and multiple choruses are featured in Benjamin Britten's powerful masterpiece that juxtaposes the Roman Catholic Requiem Mass with contemporary texts illustrating the ravages of war.

Festival of Gingerbread: We are currently in discussions with The History Center about the continuation of this popular event. A separate communication will be distributed once we know the outcome of the decision by The History Center.
